OLD FORT HIGH SCHOOL

Old Fort, Ohio

The History Of Old Fort School

Foxtown was the first Old Fort School. It was located where Joseph Depinet now lives. It burned July 4, 1885 as a result of fireworks.

The Old Fort Special School was erected in 1876 where Harold Diment now lives. School was carried on here until 1917.

The first step toward our present school building was a bond issue which passed in 1915. Three injuctions held up construction for eighteen months.

More classroom area was needed in 1931. The building which is now the cannery was used as an agricultural department. In 1937 and 1938 it was used as classroom area for the fifth and sixth grades.

A school cafeteria was started in 1933. It has run for sixteen consecutive years.

The first addition to the school was started in 1937. This added seven classrooms and a new gymnasium and auditorium.

The second addition to the school in 1948 added a special music department and an addition to the shop.

Dedication

TO MOLLIE STIGER

We the Senior Class of 1950 dedicate this annual to Mollie Stiger in appreciation of her many years of competent service rendered as the chief cook of Old Fort School.

In Memoriam

ROSLYN BARTSON

Born - May 19, 1932 Died - August 28, 1943

There's an emptiness left within the heart
That span of time can never erase;
Why had God chosen her to depart
To leave behind no visual trace?

And yet a part of her still
Remains instilled deeply within us;
The part of her that so strongly will
Sustain the memory of her in our souls
--in our hearts.

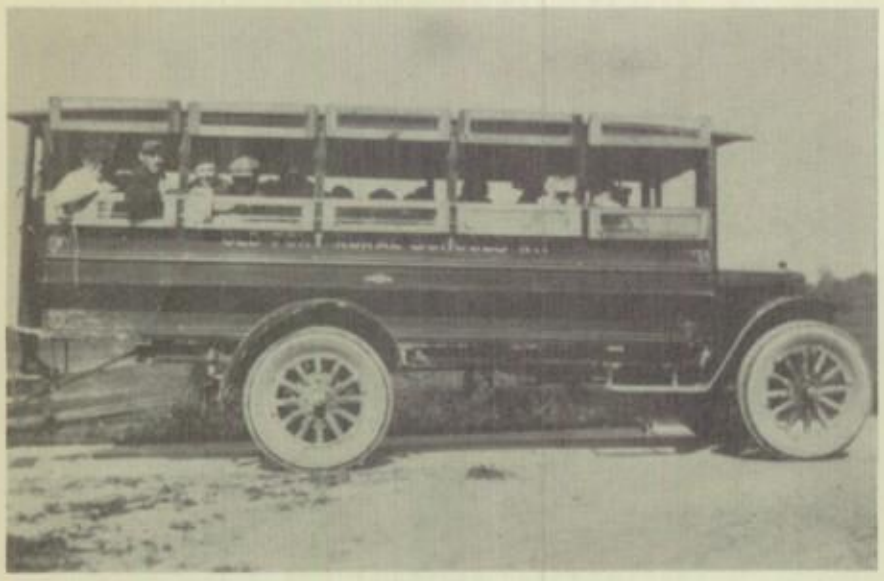
Cooks, Janitors And Bus Drivers



In the upper left hand corner is a picture of one of the first school buses ever used in the Old Fort District. And you can see the students of today have a far more comfortable ride even if they sometimes don't agree.

In the upper right hand corner are our very capable cooks; Mrs. Mollie Stiger, Mrs. Willis Hade, and Mae Karg.

In the lower left hand corner you will find our hard working custodians, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Flack through whose efforts the building has been kept spotlessly clean and warm.

In the lower right are our bus drivers. In their steady hands rests the lives of many students. Bus 1 is driven by Eula Flumerfelt; Bus 2, Evan Lynch; Bus 3, Bill Elmers; Bus 4, Arthur Mehaffey; Bus 5, Max Hoover; Bus 6, Richard Wise; and Bus 7, J. L. Swihart.

"Our Golden Days"

It doesn't seem long ago that we entered this very large and strange school. We were started on the path of learning by Anna B. Miller. Of this 1950 graduating class ten members were in the original class. Concentration was next to impossible because next to our room the new auditorium and classrooms were being very noisily constructed.

Zelma Zeis and Connie Ryman sent us through the second and third grades respectively and Edith Zink sailed us through the fourth grade.

When we entered the fifth grade, we were feeling a great loss because our beloved Roslyn Bartson had drowned that summer. Delthia Doran and Mary Alice Riehm were at the wheel that year. The next year besides Miss Doran, we also had Mrs. Norman Heilman. Then too, C. F. Rost was gone and in his place was the very quiet Mr. Ernest Hiestand as superintendent.

On to the seventh grade and the new building! Mrs. Jack Welter was waiting for us. In the eighth grade Marion Robinson was our teacher and in the trophy case in the auditorium is evidence that we won the county eighth grade basketball championship.

Drums, trumpets, and a great fanfare! Here we are in high school. With algebra, initiation, and a play, we were very busy Freshmen. Mr. J. L. Swihart was our advisor. This year we sort of lost each other in the swirl of activities but we all felt that we had the best bunch of classmates in the whole school and I think we still do. As Sophomores, we were stationed in the study hall but we spent very little time there. As always Mrs. Newman presided there. We didn't realize how near the end was then, but in the earlier part of our Junior year when we ordered our rings, it began to dawn on us that it wouldn't be long now. Right then we had a play (Great Caesar's Ghost) and a banquet to worry about. Our able advisors were Mrs. Newman and Mrs. Austermiller.

With Miss Minick and Mr. Swihart as our advisors we twenty-five seniors are cramming each day with work and fun, but we are beginning to think about a few more important things.

Have we learned all we should have? Is the school as proud of us as we are of it? I sincerely hope we can honestly answer both questions with a big yes. Then when we see the colors brown and gold together we can look back and know that the school remembers us as fondly as we remember "OUR GOLDEN DAYS".

Class Prophecy

After returning home from a long day of work in town, I decided to turn on the radio. I was surprised to hear the name of Rodney Berlekamp, one of my old classmates, as a news commentator. This made me want to hear about some of my other classmates, so I boarded a rocket bound for New York where I had heard that Mary Anglemyer was living.

From the telephone directory in New York, I found Mary was editor of the New York Tribune. She was too busy to talk but told me to go to the Paramount Theatre to see Joyce H. While speaking to Joyce, I was surprised to see Virgil K. come up to buy a ticket from Joyce. Virgil said his home was in St. Louis and that he was selling insurance for the Kisabeth Mutual Insurance Co.

The following morning I got on a space ship and headed for Boston. When the hostess brought me a cup of coffee, I found her to be Dorothy Mellott. She had been a hostess since graduation and at present was working for the American Trans-Atlantic Space Ship Co.

After arriving at Boston, I again got a rocket and headed for the center of town but stopped on seeing the sign, "Kroetz Picture and Printing Co." I went in and let Marion take my picture and also talked over old times.

I then went to Atlanta, Georgia, to see Irene R.-----now Mrs. Hal Henderson. She and her husband were dealers in automobiles to be sent overseas. She told me where to find Corrine W. and Gladys C. So I went to Pensacola, Florida where Gladys was a nurse in a hospital for wounded soldiers. Gladys and I had supper together and she told me I would have to go out West if I wanted to see Ralph J., who was a welder for the France Bridge and Construction Co. in Fawnsbury, Kansas.

Before going out West, I headed for Tiffin, Ohio to see Corrine. I found out where she lived by looking up the name of Mrs. James Cook, which was her name at present. When I asked the little boy, who answered the doorbell, if Mrs. Cook was home, he said "Who? Mamma?" and I just about jumped off the ground. I asked Corrine how many of these little Cooks she had and she said, "Only two, a girl and a boy."

On the way out West I stopped at a Motel to spend the night and found the proprietors to be none other than Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mason, the former Lucille Depinet. After eating breakfast with Lucille and her husband, I continued on to Kansas. After arriving at Fawnsbury, I looked up the company for which Ralph worked. I learned that he had gone to welding school in Cleveland. He told me that Charles Humes was working at a fertilizer plant in Dallas, Texas.

When I arrived at the plant in Dallas, I went in and to my surprise found Chuck sitting behind a desk working as bookkeeper. He had married a Texas girl and they had a little boy who looked like Chuck did in the Senior Class. If you remember---What a Chunk!

The following morning I started for Seattle but stopped at a roadside station for refueling. I found the owner of the station to be Tom Shaffer who said he had built it himself.

Once at Seattle, I took a log truck to the camp where Tom H. was working and spent the day with him talking about our classmates. He told me Ray B. was living in Wisconsin.

"Chuck just loves to eat, His greatest fondness is sweets." F.F.A. 1, 2,3,4; Parliamentary Procedure 3; Junior Play; Kampus Keyhole 2,3,4; Annual Staff.

I found Ray in the dairy section of Wisconsin doing nothing but bossing his hired men. I found Beatrice Heilman to be Dr. Irvan D. Pollack's wife here in Milwaukee. Beatrice worked with her husband in the hospital. Near the hospital I was surprised to see the sign, "Milly's Homemade Candies." I went in and bought some of her good candy to eat on the way to Detroit to see Jack D., who was a dealer for farm machinery there. I also found Don Bishop there working for the Ford Motor Co. making some kind of new gadget. That sounded just like Don--always tinkering.

I then went to Cleveland to see Don Edwards, now president of the Cleveland Indians, who was sure of his team's winning the World Series. Don told me Alvin Kiesel was traveling with Gus Sun's Daredevils as the one who drove over the ramps at high speed.

I found Margaret Kemp to be a nurse at a hospital in Cheboygan, Michigan and Mary Lou N. to be working as a desk clerk at the Southern Hotel in the same city. I was also told that Ruby Cramer was owner of a restaurant at some unknown place.

I then returned to my home and job.

Class Will

We the Senior Class of 1950 of Old Fort High School, in Seneca County and state of Ohio, being of sound mind and body, do hereby declare this, our last will and testament; thereby revoking all former documents made by us in the course of our high school life. We direct that the provisions herein be carried out as soon after our departure as possible.

I We, the Senior Class of '50, do bequeath to the faculty plenty of peaceful rest and payment of the many sleepless nights brought upon them by the numerous worries created by us.

II To the Juniors, we leave our home room, including the generous supply of gum beneath the seats; our high ideals; and our unquestionable Senior Dignity.

III To the Sophomores, we leave our athletic ability, especially the boys; also, our ambition to become a senior.

IV To the Freshmen, we bequeath our common sense and our ability to always get to English class on time.

V The following are important individual requests to be carried out as soon as this will is read.

I, Mary Anglemyer, bequeath to Carol Heckerd my ability to tease and aggravate and my ability to beat the bass drum.

I, Ray Berlekamp, will my inherited nickname "Turkey" to another Berlekamp, Cousin Rolland.

I, Rodney Berlekamp, leave my beautiful butch hair cut to Paul LaFountaine.

I, Donald Bishop, will my wirey, curly hair to Bob McCormack.

I, Gladys Colvin, will my rating as the only engaged girl in the Senior Class to Marilyn Hoffman.

I, Ruby Cramer, will my art ability to Mary Alice Oakleaf.

I, Jack DeMoss, will my forward position and my sweet smelling locker in the dressing room to Ben Seigley.

I, Lucille Depinet, leave my 4' 11" to Marla Jean Blue, who may think there is an advantage to being short.

I, Donovan Edwards, will my center position plus my ability to take basketball so seriously to Lucas Stuckey.

I, Herman Guttenberg, will my cowboy legs to Walter Joseph.

I, Thomas Hade, leave all of my Charles Atlas books to Ray Fry and hope they do as much for him as they did for me.

I, Beatrice Heilman, will my volley ball ability to my sister, Margaret,

I, Joyce Heilman, leave my inherited debating ability to Bruce Lynch.

I, Mildred Heilman, will my tipsy music rack and place in band and orchestra to Tom DeRan.

I, Charles Humes, bequeath my build to Don Wise.

I, Ralph Joseph, will my fleet movement to Howard Fry.

I, Margaret Kemp, will myexpert typing speed to Otto Lynch.

I, Alvin Kiesel will my heavy right foot on the gas pedal to Hank Maddox, a great beginner.

I, Virgil Kisabeth, will my movie star profile to John Brundage.

I, Marion Koretz, bequeath my filled out chemistry work book to any future chemistry student who might use it to an advantage.

I, Dorothy Mellott, bequeath my quietness to Virginia Shaull.

I, Mary Lou Nighswander, being the last member of my family to graduate, will my long fingernails to my distant cousin, Charles Hade, in an effort to keep them in the family.

I, Irene Rosenberger, will my tattered cheer list and hot temper to Joanne Borer and Lucille Berier.

I, Tom Shaffer, will my rapidly deteriorating "chevy" to Joe Darr, but he can't have my steady passenger.

I, Corrine Woessner, will the honor of always being alphabetically last in the class to Ralph Zimmerman.

The residue of our common property may be disposed of for the good of the coming classes.

In witness whereof, we the class of 1950, the testators, have to this will, written on one sheet of parchment, set our hands and sealed.

Sworn in the presence of Jack DeMoss.

With the opening of the curtain on the first act, George is deep in the throes of one of his many problems. Their parents can help them little as George and Terry's problems of girl and boyfriends steadily increase. Baseball, high heeled-shoes, a stripped roadster, a neighborhood party, and last, but not least, an incident with the cops further complicates their problems. All this goes on in the company of the neighborhood kids. All's well that ends well-and this does.

SECOND ROW: OTTO LYNCH, DONOVAN EDWARDS, PAUL LAFOUNTAINE. FIRST ROW: JANITA RIEDEL, MARGARET KEMP, JEAN BONNELL, PATRICIA DEPINET.

THE THOMPSONS IS AN EXTREMELY DELIGHTFUL PLAY ABOUT SMALL TOWN PEOPLE. THE THOMPSONS ARE ALL INDIVIDUALS, MOST OF THEM POSITIVE ABOUT THEIR BELIEF AND PREJUDICES. WHEN YOUNG MEL SPARKS, WHO WORKS IN A BANK AND IS A FAR CRY FROM A MAN, COMES ONE EVENING TO HIRE ONE OF THE GIRLS FOR A BANK JOB, RUMOR HAS SPREAD THAT HE IS GOING TO ASK ONE OF THEM TO MARRY HIM. MEL'S INTENTIONS ARE FAR FROM THESE. WE WONDER! BEFORE THE EVENING IS OVER MEL GOES HOME, NOT ONLY A MAN BUT AN ENGAGED ONE.

THE CAST RECEIVED A SUPERIOR RATING IN THE PRELIMINARIES AT ATTICA ON MARCH 7. ON MARCH 14 THEY JOURNEYED TO MELMORE FOR THE FINALS. THE CAST CAME HOME WITH THE FIRST PLACE TROPHY. JACKSON-LIBERTY RECEIVED SECOND. ON MAY 21 THEY WENT TO COLUMBUS TO PARTICIPATE IN THE STATE FINALS.

Huck Finn, his bosom buddy, suggested that they go to the cemetery at midnight to get rid of warts. There they ran into true excitement by discovering Injun Joe, who was there to commit a dark deed. After the slump we won nine games in a row before we lost to New Riegel in the semi-finals of the county tournament. Old Fort won their consolation game of the tournament with Bloomville. Included in our victory streak was a 49-48 victory over New Riegel which gave us a three way tie for the county league with Attica and New Riebel.

The Reserves ended the season with a record of 9 victories and 13 defeats. The reserve team was composed of unexperienced boys. They worked hard during the season and toward the end they started to appear as a good ball club. There boys promise to give us a good team next year.

The Reserves were: Howard Fry, Bill Siegley, Jack Druckenmiller, Paul La Fountaine, Jim Brickner, Dick Borough, Stanley Swihart, Wayne Heilman, Kenneth Watson, John Henry Maddox, and Ray Fry.
